This office continues its chief function of promoting trade between the Republic of Korea and the United States. Activities were chiefly concerned with answering queries by American importers and others interested in trading with Korea; contacting importers on behalf of Korean manufacturers and exporters; advising American business firms on trading opportunities in Korea. Other activities included market research, compilation of economic and trade data; reporting on trade developments and market trends; advising Korean firms on changes in U.S. import regulations and tariff structures. During the period of April 5, 6, 7, 8, & 9 rendered assistance to members of the Korean Buying Mission during the mission's stay in New York City by arranging appointments with American companies seeking opportunities to export to Korea. Mission was sponsored by the U.S. Department of Commerce. Also arranged for the participation of Korean firms in the Sporting Goods Show held in New York September 18-20, 1978.
